

Agenda
May 10, 2011

In recognition of National Teen Pregnancy Prevention Month, the Office of Adolescent Health is proud to host this special event with partnering agencies. The agenda showcases a variety of federal-led initiatives aimed at promoting adolescent health and reducing teen pregnancy. Invited speakers will share ways in which evidence-based strategies and collaboration are creating successful programs.

- I. Welcome by OAH Acting Director Evelyn Kappeler
- II. Musical entertainment by the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Washington, Teen Arts Performers
- III. Remarks by Assistant Secretary for Health Dr. Howard Koh
- IV. Overview of current data and trends in teen pregnancy by Stephanie Ventura, National Center for Health Statistics, CDC
- V. Panel discussion featuring HHS-led initiatives to promote adolescent health and reduce teen pregnancy. A question and answer period follows the panel presentations.
 - Evelyn Kappeler, Acting Director, OAH
 - Wanda Barfield, Director, Division of Reproductive Health, NCCDPH, CDC
 - Barbara Broman, Associate Deputy Assistant Secretary, ASPE
 - Marc Clark, Director, Division of Teen Pregnancy Prevention, ACF/ACYF
 - Marilyn Keefe, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Population Affairs, OPA
 - Nancy Lee, Deputy Assistant Secretary, OWH
- VI. Presentations by OAH grantees
 - Sasha Bruce YouthWork, Inc.
 - George Washington University
- VII. Jump rope performance by Bouncing Bulldogs, Rope Skipping Demonstration Team, in recognition of the National Physical Fitness and Sports Month
- VIII. Closing Remarks by OAH Acting Director Evelyn Kappeler

