

KABBS Quiz

Knowledge, Attitudes, Behaviors, and Beliefs

No right or wrong answers....Values clarification

Age: _____

Gender: _____

	Agree	Neutral	Disagree
1. If safe to do so, people should speak up for someone who is being insulted.
2. Television shows, movies, and even song lyrics can have an effect on a person's beliefs and behaviors.
3. It's no big deal to tell a guy that he's "acting like a girl" to make a joke.
4. Teasing others is okay as long as they are not physically hurt.
5. You should expect other people to figure out how you feel.
6. Rating a girl's looks on a scale of 1-10 is disrespectful.
7. I don't believe that there are hidden messages behind TV shows, movies, magazines, and ad/commercials.
8. Acting aggressively always makes people respect you more.
9. It is better if girls do typical "girly" stuff and guys do typical "manly" stuff.
10. As long as I don't behave violently in a relationship, then I'm promoting safe and respectful relationships.
11. It is better just to keep my values and beliefs to myself than to stand up for them.
12. It is harmful to make general statements like, "all girls gossip," or "boys don't have feelings."

(from www. Safeandrespectful.org)