

Strategy 4.8.2: Evaluate the impact of changes made to enhance immunization coverage.

Strategy 4.8.3: Develop and implement interventions to increase knowledge among all travelers about benefits of immunizations before travel.

Objective 4.9 Eradicate Poliomyelitis Globally

Strategy 4.9.1: Collaborate with international organizations, governments, public and private institutions, and donors to achieve global poliomyelitis eradication.

Objective 4.10 Promote Better Control of Neonatal Tetanus and Measles, Worldwide

Strategy 4.10.1: Collaborate with international organizations, governments, public and private health institutions, and donors to achieve better control of neonatal tetanus and measles, worldwide.

Objective 4.11 Promote the Self-Sustaining Capacity of Immunization Programs in Developing Countries

Strategy 4.11.1: Support the development of immunization programs capable of maintaining high levels of routine coverage with safe and effective childhood vaccines with adequate capacity in administrative, technical, and financial areas.